FORWARD

We hope that you will enjoy treasuring this book as you treasure your high school day, and that you may ever feel a touch of our pride when showing it to others. If such does prove to be your feelings we shall consider our work well done.

DEDICATION

It is with great pleasure that we, the members of the Senior Class, dedicate this volume of the Nu Lisannial to Neil Barlow. Neil was a member of our commercial class and passed away on December 31, 1944.

He did much to make this school a pleasant place to attend and has encouraged development of school spirits and higher ideals.

These are the New Lisbon boys who willingly sacrificed their ambitions and cherished dreams, and some even life itself, to preserve for us the American way of life, and win for all people the most precious gift of all, "Life itself".

CLASS HISTORY

On September 5, 1941, nineteen pupils enrolled in the Freshman Class with Miss Boring as our sponsor.

Outstanding events of the year were: the Freshman initiation and the Annual High School Hallowe'en Party.

Our Sophomore year opened with fourteen students and a new sponsor, Miss Shroyer. We gave a class party and on March 2 entertained the High School with a St. Patrick's Party.

During Junior year we had many new experiences. A three-act comedy, "Mr. and Mrs. America," was presented on December 2.

We entertained the Senior Class at the Miami Hotel in Dayton on March 17.

Dick Beeson left our class to enter the army on May 11. Class officers for the Junior year were: Wayne Stringer, president; Gladys Chew, vice-president, and Melba Shafer, secretary and treasurer.

Again in 1944 we took our places in the assembly bearing the name of "Dignified Seniors," and with a new class sponsor, Miss Shull. During the summer vacation we lost a member of our class, Ermadean Schock.

Due to the paper shortage we put out the school paper, "Jintown Journal" once a month and sent copies to the boys in service.

Our Senior play, "Act Your Age," was presented by the class on April 6.

Junior and Senior reception was held on April 13.

Baccalaureate Services were held on April 15 and Commencement on April 18.

April 20th at last and out of school for good.

SENIOR PROPHECY

Flash! Flash! - General Beeson Visits Hometown

That's the way the New York Times and a few thousand other papers over the land read on the morning of April 31, 1955.

Prior to his visit to Jimtown, General Beeson had received an uproarious welcome in New York City and was presented the keys to the City by Mayor LaGuardia. Among other celebrities to greet him was blond, suave editor of the New York Times Wayne Stringer. These two men are life-long friends and Mr. Stringer, the editor, expressed no little delight in greeting the General of whose exploits he had so long been writing. An interesting coincidence gives a human interest touch to the scene. This group of men, including the General's aides, was to be whisked to the Waldorf and so entered a taxi which the two friends Mr. Stringer and General Beeson, soon discovered was driven by Wilma Fowler, "as good a driver as any WAC," quoted the General. Upon their insistence, she abandoned the cab, one of the famous "Jimtown Line," for the day and entered into the greatest celebration the city had seen in many a month.

Following various speakers, presentations, etc., the group took time off to go see the famous Garnet Room. There they enjoyed tremendously famous and beautiful ballet numbers of Miss Maddix for whom the Garnet Room is named. This gracious dancer, strangely enough, was also a classmate of the General. Not only that but the pianist and director of the orchestra and also for the melodies of the Garnet Room, was Melba Shafer who has been with Miss Maddix as a close friend for years. It is hardly necessary to say the entire assemblage realized "old friends are the best friends".

The General, having a few days to spend, had expressed a desire earlier in the evening to see all his classmates of 1945. It seems as if Lady Luck were in there playing again. After having such a delightful evening with fellow classmen, General Beeson was more determined than ever to have his wish granted.

Beginning his tour in search of the class of 1945, General Beeson traveled to Washington. Here he found Gladys Chew following in the footsteps of Clare Booth Luce. While talking to her he learned that in her spare time she was a jockey. Glancing at his watch the General hastily left since he had only twenty minutes to make the 11:00 west bound train.

Laying his paper aside, he noticed how much spring rain had fallen. Soon afterward the conductor announced that the train would be held over until morning on account of high waters and that passengers should find rooms for overnight.

Walking down the street he suddenly found himself surrounded by small children admiring his six stars. Looking around for a way to escape this sincere admiration, he recognized their leader as one of his classmates, Mary Lou Faucett, who rushed up to regain control of the children who were from the nursery school. Then she recognized the General as the same Dick Beeson with whom she'd gone to school and she invited him to accompany her while taking the children home.

The last stop was at the home of Mrs. John Doe, the former Anna McKillip who was so thrilled with having a six-star General in her home that she promptly asked him to stay for dinner by the fireside.

During the evening chat the conversation drifted to the Nu Lisamerican Airways, a part of which was located nearby. General Beeson made a few inquiries and decided to board the G. O. A. R. Special which would take him to the new capital of Indiana, New Lisbon. The plane was 10 minutes behind schedule taking off because the aviatrix, Annabelle Goar, a former classmate, had to comb her hair and straighten her make-up.

As the plane was taxiing to a full stop, the General inquired as to where he could find Harold Paul. He was assured that Harold could be found out training the high school boys for the coming track meet with the small-town team from New Castle. Upon finding Harold he learned that the mighty Tigers had taken the state basketball tourney and were hoping to do just as good in track.

This is just a brief look into the future. So if you're on hand anytime around April 26, 1955, you might prepare to celebrate with us.

SENIOR CLASS WILL

We, the members of the class of nineteen hundred forty-five, realizing the tremendous bereavement about to be inflicted upon the faculty and underclassmen by our departure, respectfully dedicate this sacred testament or will, to the aforementioned.

I, Garnet Maddix, will my ability to get whispering marks to Charlie Luellen.

I, Melba Shafer, will my ability of following sailors to anybody that can keep from falling down.

I, Wilma Fowler, will my place as yell leader to Ruth Davis.

I, Wayne Stringer, will my personality plus to Alice Jean Austin.

I, Mary Lou Faucett, will my boisterous ways to Helen Snow.

I, Harold Paul, will my physique to Joe Bob Blunk. P. S. Take good care of it.

I, Gladys Chew, will my ability to get around and make friends to Doris Long.

I, Annabelle Goar, will my ability not to have wrecks to Herschel Ankrom Jr., thinking he might appreciate it.

I, Anna Mae McKillip, will my position as glamor girl of senior high to Doris Breneman.

We, the Seniors, leave to the school our cain-raising activities.

To the Freshmen we leave our ability to wind teachers around our fingers.

To the Sophomores we leave none of our our meanness, because they don't need it.

To the Juniors we leave our beauty and intelligence.

In Testimony Herein, we have in the above words bequeathed and willed our worldly possessions to our worthy heirs this first day of April, 1945.

PARTING ADVICE

Melba Shafer: Never chase sailors when the streets are slippery. You might fall down like I did.

Gladys Chew: To get a man's attention—first, whistle; second, when he comes, roll the car window up.

Annabelle Goar: The best way to catch a man is to turn mice loose. (So I hear.)

Harold Paul: One way to always have a date is to always have a steady girl friend.

Mary Lou Faucett: To make a good impression on teachers always be quiet and studious.

Wilma: Never take bookkeeping if you want a calm and peaceful senior year.

Garnet Maddix: It's not what you do; it's the way that you do it.

Anna Mae McKillip: Always be prompt in getting to class.

Wayne Stringer: Get on the good side of teachers before attempting to do anything.

JUNIOR CLASS HISTORY

On September 1, 1944, sixteen Jolly Juniors entered High School with Mr. Ankrom, the class sponsor, as our guide. During the summer we had lost two of our members, Edward Pleasant and Martha Daniels.

We entertained the school with an assembly program and a play period. We lost another member of the class, Donna Owens.

The last of November and the first of December found us practicing a three-act comedy, "NO FOOLIN!" which we presented on December 8, 1944.

On January 6, 1945, the Juniors gave a farewell party for Helen McNabb at her home. The latter left us January 25, 1945, to go to her new home in Kentucky.

SOPHOMORE CLASS HISTORY

In the fall of 1943, 12 green Freshmen took their places in the assembly, with Mrs. Leakey as sponsor. On Friday, September 24, we came to school the funniest looking group anyone had ever seen. In the evening we were taken to Memorial Park, where we had a weiner roast and a good time.

In October we had a Hallowe'en party, but this time it was different. We invited the whole community. We started the second semester with our original number, twelve.

During the year we lost Doris Pleasant and later Wanda Stover, who married one of last year's graduates known as "Pop" Hunt. Early in the year we lost our sponsor, Mrs. Leakey, who resigned and later on was replaced by Mr. Albrecht.

Our class has entertained the school with a play period. Also took part in various activities outside of N. L. H. S.

JIMTOWN JOURNAL

In September we, the Seniors, began the task of publishing the Jimtown Journal. Due to lack of time and materials it was published monthly. We were ably assisted by Mrs. Leakey until the second semester and then Mr. Albrecht became our commercial teacher.

The entire staff wishes to thank those who have been so co-operative. We leave the Journal to the Juniors and wish them a world of luck.

COMMERCIAL DEPARTMENT

Typing 1, 2, and 3, Bookkeeping and Business English were the subjects offered in the Commercial Department this year.

Senior commercial students put out the "Jimtown Journal" and also assisted in all the office work.

HOME ECONOMICS

During the school year of 1944-1945 the Home Economics Department has helped with Cafeteria Canning. The food canned under this project has been served in the cafeteria during the winter.

Courses offered in Home Economics this year were Home Nursing, Cooking, Elementary and Advanced Sewing, and House Planning.

4-H CLUB

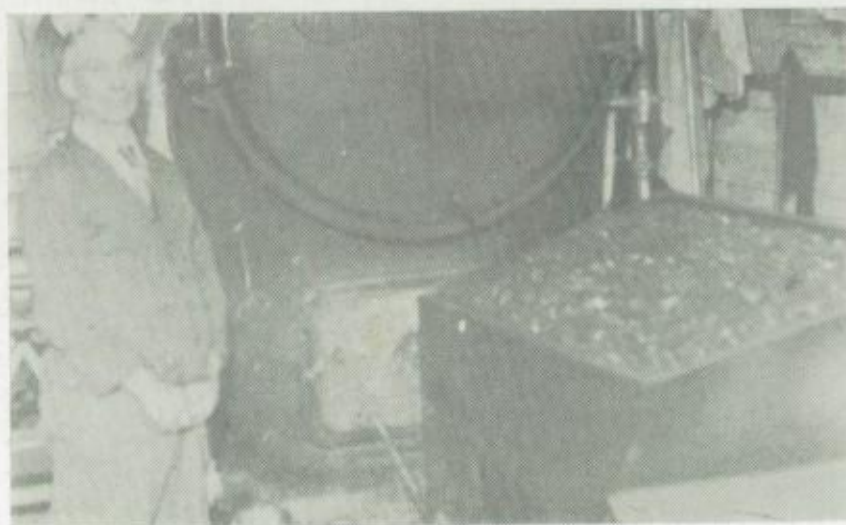

On April 6, 1944, the Dudley Work-A-Day Club reorganized their 4-H Club under the direction of Miss Shroyer for the coming summer. At this meeting the following officers were elected: Annabelle Goar, President; Joe Bob Blunk, Vice-President; Eldora Ankrom, Secretary and Treasurer; Audrey Semler, Health Chairman, and Mary Barlow, Recreation Chairman. One of the annual events is the County Judging and Demonstration Contest held at New Castle. Last year we had three girls, Eldora Ankrom, Valaire Clampitt and Annabelle Goar, to compete in this contest. Annabelle placed in the "A" group with her demonstration on "How to Iron a Man's Shirt" and was privileged to enter the district contest in judging. At the district she was in the Honor Group in Canning judging.

Our club also had two girls to place high at the County Fair in August. Eldora Ankrom won the County Junior Dress Revue and Annabelle Goar received sweepstakes in canning. At the State Fair both of these girls won firsts on their respective projects.

Our Junior leaders, who ably assisted Miss Shroyer, were Mary Barlow, Mary Faucett, Annabelle Goar and Audrey Semler.

The N. L. H. S. Cafeteria has been in operation 13 years. Mrs. Wisseler, who has served all this time, could tell you much about student and faculty likes and dislikes. We would like to express our appreciation for the faithful service that she has rendered during these last 13 years.

This is "Bill" Ballard, our custodian, handy man and friend, who is still ready to do his part whatever it may be after six years of faithful service. We appreciate, more than we sometimes say, the many things that Bill does for us every day.

"NO FOOLIN"

On December 3, 1944, the Junior Class presented a three-act comedy, "No Foolin" in the school gymnasium. The plot of the comedy was the new curfew law and how it got Joan in trouble. Any couple found in the park after ten o'clock had to get married, and quite by accident Joan and Phillip, a playwright, were found in the park together after ten o'clock. When Joan brought her husband home, her family was very angry at her for marrying a complete stranger, and also everyone had the impression that Phillip was a criminal because he was so mysterious. In the end everything turned out all right with Joan being married to Phillip and his being a playwright, and Hal and Lupe getting married. The cast was as follows:

Prunella	Thelma Brenner
Joan	Wanda Thomas
Dinah	Doris Carroll
Lupe	Ramona Miller
Gail	Mary Barlow
Molly	Helen McNabb
Mrs. Merrick	Audrey Semler

ACT YOUR AGE

Angy and Jerry were only doing their patriotic duty, writing to those two lonesome sailors on the high seas. Then, in pop Gadget and Jim on a 3-day leave and the girls are in a fix. They had led the boys to believe they were young ladies, and not 14-year-old kids, so they get into an older sister's clothes. It looks like a grand week-end for all until attractive Aunt Sandra, whom the girls had never met, arrives, takes in the situation, and decided to teach them all a lesson. She dresses up as a brat of a child who is an expected guest and then proceeds to make a holy terror of herself.

"Act Your Age" was given in the High School Gymnasium on April 6, 1945.

SERVICE CLUB

The Service Club is an organization of those students who have brothers, sisters, or fathers serving in the Armed Forces. Throughout the year we have taken charge of the stamp and bond sales of the school. A contest was held between the grades and the losers entertained the winners with a party. The main project of the year was the "Sensations of 1945". Given March 9, 1945, for the purpose of securing a plaque to honor New Lisbon boys in service. The main part of the program consisted of two short plays called "Hist! She's A Man" and "Girl Trouble", various musical numbers and "Winter Wonderland", a fantasy presented by the Girls Physical Ed. Class.

BOOSTER CLUB

The Booster Club was reorganized in October with 34 members. The following officers were elected: Melba Shafer, President; Gladys Chew, Vice-President; Annabelle Goar, Secretary-Treasurer, and Mary Barlow, Reporter.

The first activity was a feed for the New Lisbon-Straughn basketball boys followed by a dance in the gymnasium which was well attended by the students and enjoyed by the many parents who stayed. The finances for this affair were furnished by the Athletic Fund and donations.

On December 22, the club held a "sing" and served refreshments to the patrons and students of the school.

The club sponsored pep-session programs before each tourney to give the deserving boys an appropriate send off. Pennants and ribbons were distributed to fans.

Each member proudly wears a pin which designates his affiliation with the Booster Club.

They have a fine orchestra and have played on several different occasions and have gone different places. I'm sure they will continue the good work.

First Row: Doris Bell, Ruth Davis, Doris Carroll, Wanda Thomas, Helen Snow, Audrey Semler, Deloris Matney.

CHORUS

The mixed chorus started under the leadership of Mrs. Croushore and continued up until the time she left. Due to the lack of a teacher following her leaving, until, Mr. Albrecht undertook directing the chorus did not have a chance to prove its talent. It is improving now that it has a steady teacher and expects to have entertained on several occasions by the time school year has ended.

RECEPTION

For the 1945 Reception the Junior Class took the Seniors and High School Faculty on a trip to Turkey Run State Park on Friday, April 13. Recreation consisted of trips through the park, horseback riding, hiking and games in recreation room.

The main feature was a banquet and dance held Friday night. Saturday morning was spent in guided trips through the park, hiking, riding and leisurely enjoyment of the scenic beauty.

The party left the park about noon, attended a show in Indianapolis during the afternoon, and arrived home Saturday night.

MEMORY LANE

All through the years you will remember the days spent at N. L. H. S. Maybe you will remember these things:

Wayne thought he was the shiek of New Castle.

Mary Lou Faucett fought with the rest of the gym class.

Gladys backed into the hot water pipe in the dressing room.

Wilma and Dick were that way about each other.

Anna brought the news to school that Charlie kissed her good-night.

Annabelle blushed so hard in the assembly.

Miss Shull had a twin sister.

The seniors were freshmen.

Doris Long and Wayne Stringer spent a romantic evening in Shafer's car.

Miss Shull tangled with the sophomores. (Which time?)

Melba sang "Daddy" in front of the assembly.

Wilma liked to wink at the new teacher.

The teachers "little green room" where they could take a daily snooze.

The days we didn't have to go to school because of the snow.

The eighth grade's three S slogan—Simple, Stupid and Slow.

HershelD.'s ability to tell tall stories during the noon hour.

The seniors walked through the mud to see Sonia Henie.

The Booster Club sponsored a dance in the gym.

Mr. Gregory made a speech on how to judge a dress.

Harold Paul made a daily trip to town.

Wayne liked to play under the bleachers in the gym.

Garnet thought a certain boy from New Castle was pretty cute.

Miss Boring was our sponsor.

Doris Carroll fell down at the Hallowe'en party.

Mrs. Leakey left N. L. H. S.

We beat Mooreland at the tourney.

Melba fell down chasing a sailor.

GIRLS' PHYSICAL ED

The first few weeks of school in the fall of 1944 heard many a groan issue from the larynxes of approximately 25 girls who were seeking that ever tempting goal of physical fitness. This physical education class met out-of-doors in suitable weather and after an apportioned time for calisthenics played soft ball. When routine included the call to order, running once around the gym, marching and some calisthenics drill.

Probably the most popular group game is what is called "Horse". Others which are well liked are competitive Kick-Ball, Volley Ball and Dodge Ball.

The girls planned and performed an "Ice Revue" at the Service Club Program of March 9, 1945.

There is a fine spirit of cooperation and industry shown here. Fair play and sportsmanship are very evident.

TOAST TO THE BASKETBALL BOYS

Toasts to the boys
A cheer and a song
Best wishes to them
As the years roll along.

Here's to Harold Paul
Our guard on the sectional team
With his muscles and curls
He is our hero, our basketball dream.

Here's to Wayne Stringer,
Forward, class president, and pet
Of students and teachers.
He'll get where he's going—wanna bet?

Here's to Jim Crone
So fair, so smooth, and so tall.
It's the cream of the crop
That Uncle Sam's called.

Here's to Dick House
Whom the crowd likes to cheer
With the collegiate cut clothes
He's our man of the year.

Here's to Don Faucett
His size and his skill hold the ball,
But as for his lady
She's slender and tender and small.

Here's to Lloyd Werking
"Big chief" of the junior class
"Blue eyes and blonde hair"
Sighs a sweet little lass.

Here's to Hershel D.
With his horn sweet and hot.
He'll go far in his line—
And what a line he's got!

Here's to Johnny
"Don't Fence Me In" Chew
Better mount that palmeno
Or a girl will get you.

Here's to McKillip
And Catch-Me-Quick Bennett
If there's fun to be had,
You'll find them right in it.

Here's to Myron's blonde hair
And to Charlie's dark eyes,
That's a Sophomore combination
To take any prize.

Here's to Carl and to 'Gene
The Kirkendall boys
We like their good humor,
Their politics, their noise.

Here's to Cincinnati Roy
And to Liberty Jack
This is the pair
The freshmen back.

A toast for the coach
Another for the principal, too;
Without their hard work
Victories would have been few.

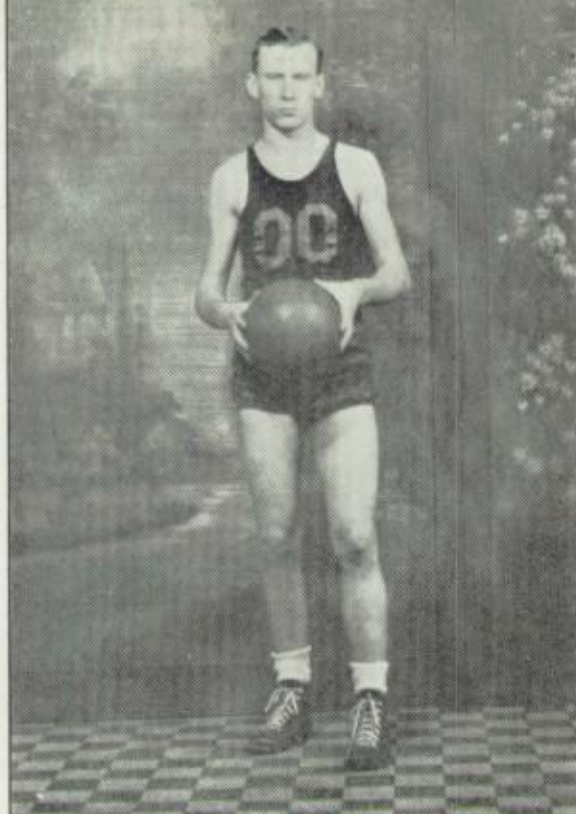

Here's to the managers,
Assistant Reed and Blunk
This year they took everything—
Including Don's trunks.

Here's to our cheer leaders,
They yell and they spin.
When they carry out colors,
It's easy to win.

A toast to Art Fowler
And to Bill Ballard, too,
They have worked right with us
All the way through.

Our last toast is to our boys
On Uncle Sam's teams
May they come home to us quickly
Our soldiers, our sailors, our marines.

—Mrs. Ina Mae Leakey

BASKETBALL

When Coach Gregory gave the basketball call last fall 15 boys answered it. The Tigers had two of the last year's five back, they are Paul guard and Dick House center.

At the first game of the season Gregory put a small but a mighty five on the floor and they clicked pretty good together so Coach Gregory selected them as his five through the year. The five are Faucett-forward, Crome-forward, House-center, Stringer-guard and Paul-guard. With Werking and Matney doing a swell relief work when called on.

In the county tourney the Tigers defeated Mooreland in the opening game by a score of 23 to 19. Then that night the Tigers came back and defeated the Kennard Leopards 35 to 33. The next Saturday the Eagles of Mt. Summit proved to be too much for the Tigers and defeated them 37 to 30.

New Lisbon drew Knightstown in the opening game of the sectional tourney and were defeated by a score of 46 to 44. The Tigers had one player on the all county team this year. He is Harold Paul senior guard.

The Tigers had a successful season this year by winning 12 games and losing 5 under the leadership of Coach Ollie Gregory.

The Tigers lose two players this spring by graduation. They are Wayne Stringer and Harold Paul, both of them are guards. But we are afraid that the armed forces are going to take two Juniors. Center Dick House and forward Jim Crome.

We the Tigers of 1944 and 45 wish the Tigers of 1945 and '46 all the luck in the world.

Front Row: House, Faucet, Stringer, Paul, Crome, Gregory, Coach

Second Row: Blunk, Student Manager, Ankrom, McKillip, Chew, Matney, Werking

Back Row: Bennet, Luellen, C. Kirkendall, Carroll, Sweeney, E. Kirkendall

BASEBALL

The Tigers started off the baseball season last fall with a willing but inexperienced group of boys.

They had only six boys who had played any ball from last year.

Paul at home, House on the mound, Crone at first, Matney at second, Stringer at short, Faucett at third, Werking in left, Ankrom in center, and C. Kirkendall in right. With E. Kirkendall, Carroll, and Stover as reliable subs. And did a splendid job every time they were called upon. House pitched good ball but the team's errors and lack of hitting lost most of our games.

W. Stringer and H. Paul are the only Tigersmen to graduate this spring but the army is going to take J. Crone, R. House and P. Stover before next year's school will start.

Those returning next year are E. and C. Kirkendall, D. Faucett, H. Ankrom, M. Matney, J. Chew, J. Carroll, L. Werking and T. McKillip.

We, the members of the Tiger team of '44, wish the team of '45 all the luck in the world.

The Tigers played under a new coach this year, Ollie Gregory from Lebanon.
